

AMAZING ARTS CAMP POETRY

During the course of the week there were 75 poems about Camp Olave written and presented to the leaders in exchange for a prize. Many of these poems had a common thread including Fun, Friends and Memories. They included such words as archery, swimming, sun, sand, trees swaying, oceans swishing, campfires roaring, water flowing, campfire glows, camp is better than ketchup, camp is better than fries, friendship goes hand in hand, have fun all day and lay and listen to the ocean at night.

Four poems caught my eye as they each expressed simple feelings about the camp. There were many other poems that were well thought out, interesting and creative as well as many that were put together hastily with feeling. Rosemary, Maureen and I were amazed at the number of girls who took the time to write these poems.

Bears will eat you here
But remember do not fear
Just take a bathroom buddy
Or else the outcome won't be funny!

Roses are Red
Violets are blue
Camp Olave is fun
And so are you.

I like you and
You like me and
We both like Camp Olave

The sound of waves crashing against the shore
Gathered around to hear Girl Guide folklore
Now it's time to say goodbye
But the spirit of camp Olave will never die.
